DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 1, drawn to associating physical resource at which a container may be stored or copied with a logical resource and a physical resource specifying a type from a group of an archive, a cache, a primary archive, and a primary cache, classified in class 707, subclass 201.
 - II. Claim 2, drawn to creating meta-data for the container including meta-data specifying the container name and the logical resource to be allocated to the container and storing the meta-data for the container in a meta-data catalog, classified in class 707, subclass 100.
 - III. Claims 3 – 5 and 7 – 15, drawn to querying meta-data for the container including a next available offset, writing the data object into the copy at the next available offset and updating meta-data for the copy to reflect the write operation, classified in class 707, subclass 4.
 - IV. Claim 6, drawn to synchronizing a cache and archival copies of a container, classified in class 707, subclass 204.
 - V. Claims 16 – 32, drawn to managing containers in a network of distributed physical resources, classified in class 707, subclass 10.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions as listed in Group I, II, III, IV and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination has separate utility as follow,

Group I discloses associating physical resource at which a container may be stored or copied with a logical resource and a physical resource specifying a type from a group of an archive, a cache, a primary archive, and a primary cache; Group II discloses creating meta-data for the container including meta-data specifying the container name and the logical resource to be allocated to the container and storing the meta-data for the container in a meta-data catalog; Group III discloses querying meta-data for the container including a next available offset, writing the data object into the copy at the next available offset and updating meta-data for the copy to reflect the write operation; Group IV discloses synchronizing a cache and archival copies of a container and while Group V discloses managing containers in a network of distributed physical resources.

See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2162

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
